

Full central Au-Au RHIC event as reconstructed in the STAR detector. This shows why it is necessary to inhibit drawing of most of the tracks and points in order to see detailed information about an interesting class of tracks or points.

